

Senior Structural Maritime Engineer

The Company

Formed in 1988, Madsen Giersing is a world leader in maritime engineering providing a first class, independent consultancy service.

Our international reputation is for providing excellence, innovative cost effective solutions in the design of marine structures and temporary works.

Our clients include national and local government, port authorities, national and international contractors with projects predominately based in Australia, PNG and South-East Asia.

Madsen Giersing's core values are:

- Innovation and excellence in design and service
- Long term client relationships
- Accountability, responsibility & reliability
- Integrity
- Team work
- Commitment

The Position

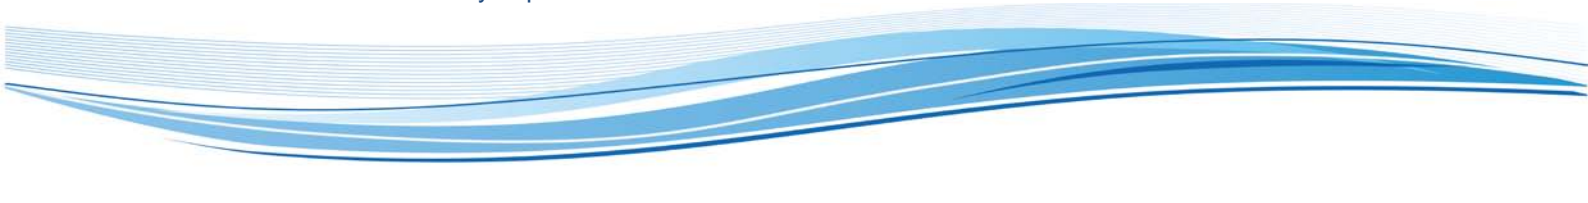

This position will play a key role within the company working alongside the Managing Director and senior team.

This position will suit an engineer who is seeking a role working on challenging and interesting projects and who enjoys a busy and high performing culture. This position will also suit an individual who is looking for a long term opportunity and would like to grow and build a career with a leading engineering consultancy firm and who can be involved in projects from proposal/tender stage through to completion.

Duties

Lead and manage projects
Deliver leading, cutting edge innovative design to our clients
Prepare tenders, bids and fee proposals
Deliver preliminary and detailed design
Prepare technical reports
Design documentation reviews
Check and supervise drafting
Liaise with clients
Mentor and oversee junior team members
Occasional travel may be required

To be considered for this position it is essential you have the following:

- Engineering degree with an emphasis on Structural Engineering
 - A minimum of 8-10 years experience with an emphasis on marine engineering
 - RPEQ and CPEng
 - Strong leadership and management ability
 - Developed negotiation, contractual and commercial skills
 - A client focused vision
 - Excellent computer literacy as well as excellent technical and report writing skills
 - Excellent communication and interpersonal skills and you will be articulate and confident
 - Eligibility to work in Australia (i.e. relevant visa, citizenship/permanent residency). Previous consultancy experience desirable
-

What we offer

- A key position within the company
- A permanent and full-time role available for immediate start
- Opportunity to grow and develop role
- National and international projects to lead and manage
- A competitive remuneration package
- A social work environment
- Top floor modern, newly built office in the heart of Newstead with city and river views. Public transport across the road and on-street parking. Walking distance to The Emporium, shops and cafes. Shower facilities, bike storage and lockers.

A negotiable salary package will be offered to the successful individual based on qualifications, skills and experience.

